

Author Biographies

Abdullah Alghofaili graduated from Florida Atlantic University in December, 2014. He is an international student and will be entering an MBA program in the fall.

Inka Bauer is a senior who came to FAU to major in psychology because of her great passion for studying human behavior and neuropsychological processes. Having grown up in Europe, she has had ample exposure with cultural differences and their relationship with human behavior and cognition. This sparked an interest in her to study legal principles and the way these are applied here in the U.S. in order to control dysfunctional aspects of human behavior. Inka is expecting to graduate summa cum laude in Spring 2015, and aspires to continue with Graduate school.

Anthony Bertucci is a Senior at FAU majoring in Management (with a concentration in Entrepreneurship) and double minoring in Business Law and Economics. He served as Secretary of the ULJ during the 2014-2015 school year. He will be graduating cum laude in the Spring of 2015 after only three years in college.

Ephraim Goldshtein is studying Law at the University of Haifa, He is an International Exchange student here at FAU, taking Business Law courses and a course regarding White Collar Crime. Ephraim is interested in both the friction points between the criminal and corporate fields, law and the way the law deals with innovation.

Eugene Merkert is a senior at Florida Atlantic University double majoring in Management and Marketing with a concentration in Entrepreneurship. He expects to graduate magna cum laude in May 2015. Ultimately he wishes to either start his career in the digital marketing industry or create an innovative startup.

Guinda St. Fleur is a junior at Florida Atlantic University majoring in Biology and a minor in Health Administration. She wishes to pursue a career in the field of Medicine.

Taylor Tyson is a sophomore philosophy major with a passion for performing internationally as a concert pianist, and working through the 501©(3) organization she founded in 2003, which carries the mission of donating instruments to underprivileged children. Taylor plans to follow in her father's footsteps of becoming an attorney with a focus on humanitarian law.

Matthew Turchiaro is a senior history major with a minor in business law. He likes writing excessively, and has written poems, books, and other short stories. He likes Brazilian Jiu Jitsu, and other physical activities. He reads voraciously, and his favorite author is H.P Lovecraft. His favorite book ever written as of now is Watership Down.

Asya Yanchinova is a Business Management and Biology major with a Business Law minor. She ultimately wishes to become a lawyer after she graduates in 2015.

ULJ Editing Board works on final Journal.

From left to right:
Editor-in-Chief Asya
Yanchinova, Inka
Bauer, Guinda St.
Fleur, Treasurer
Matthew Turchiaro,
Ephraim Goldshtein,
and Secretary
Anthony Bertucci.

The articles in the Undergraduate Law Journal are researched and written for the purpose of gaining greater knowledge concerning identified issues. They should not be treated as legal opinions. The articles are written by undergraduate students for the sole purpose of stimulating discussion and debate concerning contemporary issues.