

Donors

The Broward County Historical Commission greatly appreciates the many donations received in recent months. Donations of historical artifacts, photos, books, and manuscripts, as well as furniture and office supplies are especially welcome as the Historical Commission settles into new quarters at the Broward County Historical Museum building.

The new building substantially increases our ability to properly store, catalog, and preserve new acquisitions. Donations of time and energy by volunteers are indispensable in making use of our expanded facilities and collections.

The Historical Commission offers sincere thanks to each of the following donors:
