

MILLIKEN & COMPANY

College Relations Department, M-260E
P.O. Box 1926
Spartanburg, SC 29304

● GENERAL INFORMATION ●

Milliken is a major manufacturer of textile products for apparel, commercial, home and industrial markets. Milliken Chemicals operates two modern Specialty Chemicals plants in South Carolina. The company was founded in 1865 and now has 50 plants and 15,000 associates in the US (16,000 worldwide). The Milliken environment is characterized by challenge, accomplishments, innovation, advanced technology, promotion from within based on individual performance, and extensive education and training opportunities. The chemical engineering jobs are in South Carolina and Georgia.

CITIZENSHIP REQUIREMENTS: U.S. citizenship or Permanent Resident Visa

REGIONS WHERE BS/MS CAMPUS RECRUITING IS CONDUCTED: Southeastern United States

HOW TO APPLY IF UNABLE TO SCHEDULE CAMPUS INTERVIEW: Send cover letter with functional area interests and geographic preference statement, resume, and a copy of your transcript to the above address.

● ENTRY LEVEL OPPORTUNITIES FOR CHEMICAL ENGINEERS ●

BS/MS

Process Engineering: Provides technical support in textile dyeing and finishing operations and in Specialty Chemicals production. Responsibilities include manufacturing compliance with customer product quality specifications and process efficiency/improvement project assignments.

Manufacturing Management: Responsible for the production resources of people and machinery. The first line production manager may be promoted to either Advanced Production Manager or Process Engineer in the dual career ladder.

Research: Develops new products and associated machinery or processes. Prefer PhD, but will consider MS.

An Equal Opportunity Employer